EVENING BULLETIN.

SATURDAY EVENING, NOV. 14, 1887.

SELLING BREAD BY WEIGHT.—A committee of the New York common council have had the subject of selling bread by weight under consideration. The committee did not assume that they had the right to fix the price of bread, or to determine of what materials it should be composed; but only to decide upon the size of the loaves. Mr. McFadden, a baker, suggested that loaves should be made of one, two, and four pounds weight, and that six rolls should go to the pound. If flour were $6 per barrel, one pound loaves would be worth 3 cents each. Bread should be branded with the maker's name and with a figure indicating the weight of it. If a system of weights were established, the baker who made the best bread and sold it cheapest would secure the most patronage. The committee finally decided to report an ordinance requiring bakers to make their bread of one, two, and four pounds weight, and to stamp the same with the initials of the maker's name, and figures representing the weight. Also, directing the city inspector, or his subordinates, to seize all bread not conforming with the requirements of the law, and confiscate it for the use of the almshouse department. The dishonest baker is also to be fined.

The city council of Washington have also made a bill regulating the weight and quality of bread. This bill requires bread to be sold by weight, each loaf to weigh not less than sixteen nor more than eighteen ounces, the sales in all cases to be reckoned in United States currency. Bread must be made of the best quality of pure white flour, free from all adulterating ingredients. The clerks of the market and police officers will be required to send bread forfeited under this act to the almshouse. The fines are set down at not less than five nor more than ten dollars.

CONVENTION OF THE DISCHARGED RAILROAD RUNNERS AT INDIANAPOLIS.—The railroad having, in accordance with the resolution of the Cleveland convention, discharged all runners, the discharged runners of all roads centering at Indianapolis held a convention in that city on Tuesday last, and resolved on an attempt to break down the combination formed at Cleveland. For this purpose, they determined to unite upon certain routes and solicit passengers and freight for them. They resolved to use their influence for the Bellefontaine and New York Central route to Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, &c., for the Lawrenceburg route for Cincinnati, Lexington, Baltimore, Washington, and all south-eastern points; and for the Terre-Haute & Indianapolis, and the Terre-Haute, Alton, & St. Louis roads for St. Louis, Alton, and all points in Central and Southern Illinois, and all towns on the Mississippi as far north as Galena.

All lines other than those for which they work are ignored by them, and while they are not required to tell all the truth about all roads to those seeking information of them, it is understood that they are not to state positive falsehoods in regard to rival routes.

The want of all posters at depots, of hand-bills, runners, agents, &c., they say is seriously felt by the traveling public, and as this new combination will have the field entirely to themselves, they are confident of being able to send the greater portion of the business over the routes they have selected.

On Wednesday, in one of the Naval Courts sitting at Washington, in the case of Chase Barney, the Judge-Advocate propounded a question to a witness for the government with respect to the domestic relations between the defendant and his wife. The counsel for the defense protested that he had not come into court to have his domestic affairs investigated. The court insisted on the question, when the defendant's counsel, a son of Governor Wise, collected his papers and left, saying that his client, as a man of honor, could not be a party to bringing his wife's name before the Naval tribunal for discussion, and that if the court choose to pursue that investigation, it should be ex parte. The court closed its doors for a secret deliberation, and decided to submit the propriety of the question for the President's decision. The occurrence excites much indignant criticism in naval circles.

RESUMPTION OF WORK.—It has already been stated that quite a number of mills in Massachusetts have resumed operations, and it is now said that the celebrated Lodi Print Works in New Jersey will start their machinery on the 16th inst. Some idea of the extent of operations of this concern may be formed from the fact that they employ five hundred operatives. As things now stand, manufacturers will have but a slim chance for running their mills at a profit, raw materials being too high to leave a margin on goods, notwithstanding the material decline of the former since the commencement of the revulsion.

A STATE SUB-TREASURY.—The Buffalo Republic proposes a sub-treasury for the State of New York; and the fact that there are about three millions in the banks of the State due the State treasury, but which they cannot or will not pay, is referred to as proof that some such institution is needed for the safe-keeping of the public money. The State, it is said, has been seriously incommoded through the remissness of the banks, and this fact is highly prejudicial to them as custodians of the public fund, and it is very liable to be effectually used against them in the incoming Legislature.

SALE OF LAND.—Dr. A. K. Marshall sold, publicly, on Thursday last, his farm in Jessamine county, about half way between Lexington and Nicholasville, at $117 70 per acre. The place contained one hundred and forty-five acres and was finely improved. Daniel B. Bryan, of Jessamine, was the purchaser.

WASHINGTON GOSPEL.—The Herald's correspondent telegraphs under date of the 11th:

It is asserted here on good authority that there is much truth in the contemplated invasion of Mexico by Spain. At least, recent information received by our government indicates something of the kind. Our government will keep a close watch of matters in that direction for the next few months.

It is understood that Mr. Dodge will shortly come home from Madrid, and that Mr. Belmont, who has just returned from the Hague, will be offered the place.

The sale of the Fort Ripley Reservation, at from one to twenty-five cents per acre, will not be approved by Secretary Floyd.

Messrs. Thompson, Morse, & Co., New York, quote land warrants as follows:

ITEMS.

Chauncey Brooks, Esq., has been re-elected president and Joshua J. Atkinson, Esq., treasurer and secretary of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company.

At Philadelphia, last week, two keen looking customers went among the brokers with five and ten dollar notes which they got changed for smaller bills, principally one and two dollar notes. They then entered complaint against the brokers for violating the law against the passing of small bills, the penalty for which is twenty-five dollars for each note passed, one-half of which goes to the informer. The sharpers will thus make a snug sum if the law is enforced. As selling a note is not passing it, the charge will in all probability be dismissed as groundless.

The factories situated at Manayunk, Philadelphia, are beginning to resume work, and quite a number of them are making active preparations to go on as usual.

An epidemic of a novel character is said to be showing itself among horses in Eastern Pennsylvania. A short time ago Mr. Watson P. Magill, of Salesbury, Bucks county, reported the loss of three by "putrid fever." The symptoms are a soreness and swelling of the gullet or alimentary passage and rapid falling away of the fleshy parts of the body. Its termination is almost always fatal, and it is said to be contagious in its nature.

Officer Brooks, of the New York police, on Tuesday found a German family, consisting in all of five persons, residing in a hovel at No. 44 Orchard street, literally starving to death! They had been unable to procure either food or medical attendance, and three of them were severely injured by a camphene explosion.

The Tippecanoe Bank at Logansport, Ind., is under protest, and the Auditor of State has given notice of the sale of its securities for the purpose of placing the bank in liquidation. The bills are taken at from 10 to 25 per cent. discount, but they are, doubtless, worth their face, unless there has been a fraudulent over-issue of notes. We would advise all holders of the bills to submit to no heavy discount upon them.

The town of Leesburg, Kosciusko county, Ind., was visited with a most destructive fire on Sunday night last. Property valued at $20,000 was destroyed, upon which it is said there was no insurance. The sufferers are Mr. Blaine, who had his tavern stand burned; Mr. Geddes, stoves and hardware store; Mr. Hawks of Toledo store, and several other buildings. It is thought that the fire originated in the kitchen of the tavern.

On the morning of the 13th, the newspaper offices and five stores in the village of Culpepper, Va., were destroyed by fire. Loss $30,000.

Leading Democratic members of Congress, who have arrived in Washington from the South, predict an uncompromising "split" in their ranks both in the Senate and House upon the Kansas policy and other issues that may arise thereafter.

Young Cowlan, who was recently convicted of robbing the mail in Richmond, was sentenced by Judge Halyburton, on Friday, to ten years' imprisonment in the penitentiary. On Friday night he attempted to commit suicide with a knife and wounded himself badly, but not fatally. He was removed to the penitentiary at Richmond on Saturday by the deputy marshal.

The New York cattle markets were very largely oversupplied on Wednesday, the receipts for the week being over four thousand, including some 250 left over last week. Prices went down to a lower point than at any time before for many years. The average prices of the day were below 8 cents per pound for the dressed beef. Hind quarters of fair beef were sold during the past week as low as 5 1/2c per pound.

A meeting of Western drovers was held at the Girard House, Philadelphia, on Wednesday evening, at which a series of resolutions, complaining of the present high freights on the railroads over which their stock is brought to the New York market, were adopted, and a committee appointed to confer with drovers along the various routes and make arrangements for the concentration of the patronage of all upon some road at reduced rates.

A proposition for stay laws has been defeated in the Missouri House by a vote of 100 to 4.

The Cincinnati and Marietta Railroad Company refuses to submit to the rates of fare adopted by the General Agents at Chicago. As the short line, it has the right to name the rates, and it has done so, making quite a reduction.

New Counterfeit.—The following is a description of a new counterfeit ten dollar bill on the Louisiana State Bank, New Orleans: Vignette—Neptune and female in car drawn by sea horses, ship on right, female leaning on a shield on the left, sheaf of wheat and farming utensils between signatures, appearance dark, paper good imitation of genuine.

The Granite Bank of Voluntown, Ct., has been enjoined and a Receiver appointed for it.

A HIDING PLACE FOR ROBESPIERRE.—A curious discovery has lately been made, while repairing the house formerly occupied by the Jacobin Club during the great revolution, and now known as the Hotel de Londres, in the Rue St. Hyacinthe, St. Honoré, the Club which guided the destinies of the revolution during some few years had often boasted of allowing the ambition of Robespierre and other leaders to progress so far, and no further; and the members by vote had passed a law which entitled the majority to exclude from any particular session any particular member whose interests might lead him to sway the opinions of the club. Robespierre, whose ambition had rendered him an object of suspicion, had often been voted out of the assembly; and it has been a matter of surprise to the historian of the time that he could so long have maintained his influence in spite of the violence of the opposition thus permitted.

The secret is now revealed. A small room, a hiding place in the thickness of the wall, has just been discovered, opening by a trap-door into the very hall where the deliberations were being carried on, and whence he could listen to the measures to be taken against him, and thus forearmed, have power to defeat them. It is evident that this hiding place must have been occupied by Robespierre; and when first entered by the workmen the traces of his presence were still visible in the journal which lay upon the table, and the writing paper, from which had been torn small portions, as if for the purpose of making a memorandum. The only book which was found in the place was a volume of Florin, open at the second chapter of Claudine. It was covered with snuff, which had evidently been shaken from the reader's shirt-collar, and bore testimony to the truth of history which records the simplicity of the literary tastes of Robespierre. His presence seemed still to hang about that small space, as though he had quitted it but the moment before; and, singular enough, the marks of his feet, as though he had recently trodden through the mud, were still visible on the tiles with which the flooring is composed.

New York, Nov. 12. The steamship Cahawba, which sailed to-day for New Orleans and Havana, took $250 in specie for New Orleans and $100,000 for Mobile—none for Havana.

A FAMOUS GAME OF CHESS.—The following is a report of the fifth and decisive game which was played between the two most distinguished players at the recent National Chess Congress:

Between Mr. Louis Paulsen, of Danaburg, Iowa, and Mr. Paul Morphy, of New Orleans.

And White resigned.

HARP SERMON.

My Beloved Brethrening.—I am an unlearned hard shell Baptist preacher, of whom you've no doubt heard before, and I now appear here to expound the Scriptures and point out the narrow way which leads from a vain world to the streets of the Jerusalem, and my text which I shall choose the occasion is in the 1st of the Bible somewhere between the second Chronic and the last chapter of Timothy Titus, and when you find it you will find it in these words:

"And they shall gnaw a file and flee unto the mountains of Hepsidam, whar the lion roareth and the wang doodle mourneth for its first-born."

Now, my brethrening, as I have before told you, I am an uneducated man, and know nothing about grammar talk and collige highfalootin; but I'm a plain unlearned preacher of the Gospel what's been foreordained, and called to expound the Scriptures in a dyin world, and prepare a preverse generation for the day of wrath; for "they shall gnaw a file and flee unto the mountains of Hepsidam, whar the lion roareth and the wang doodle mourneth for its first-born."

And now there be some here with fine close on their backs, brass rings on their fingers, and land on their hat, what goes it while they're young; and that be brothers here whar, as long as their constitutions and forty-cent whisky last, goes it blind; and that be sisters here what, when they get sixteen years old, cut their tiller ropes and goes it with a rush; but I say, my dear brethrening, take care you don't find, when Gabriel blows his last trump, that you've all went it a lone and got ukered; for "they shall gnaw a file and flee unto the mountains of Hepsidam, whar the lion roareth and the wang doodle mourneth for its first-born."

And, my brethren, there's more dams besides Hepsidam. That's Rotterdam, Haddam, Amsterdam, mill-dam, and don't-care-a-dam—the last of which, my dear brethrening is the worst of all, and reminds me of a circumstans, I once knew in the State of Illenoy. There was a man what build him a mill on the east fork of Agur creek, and it was a good mill and ground a sight of grain, but the man what built it was a miserable sinner, and never giv anything to the church; and, my brethrening one night that came a dreadful storm of wind and rain and the fountains of the great deep was broken up, and the waters rushed down and swept that man's mill-dam into kingdom come, and lo and behold, in the morning when he got up he found he was not worth a dam. Now, my young brethrening, when storms of temptation overtake ye, take care you don't fall from grace and become like that man's mill—not worth a dam; for "they shall gnaw a file and flee unto the mountains of Hepsidam, whar the lion roareth and the wang doodle mourneth for its first-born."

Where the lion roareth and the wang doodle mourneth for its first-born. This part of the text, my brethrening, is another figure of speech, and isn't to be taken as a fact. It doesn't mean the howlin' wilderness whar John the hard shell Baptist was fed on locusts and wild asses, but it means, my brethrening, the city of New Orleans, the mother of harlots and hard lots—whar corn is worth six bits a bushel one day and marry red the next; whar niggers are as thick as blackbug in a spoiled bacon ham, and gamblers, thieves and pickpockets go skitting about the streets like weasels in a barnyard—whar they have cream colored horses, gilded carriages, marble saloons with brandy and sugar in 'em—whar honest men are scarce than hen's teeth, and a strange woman once tuk in your beloved and twenty-even dollars in the twinklin of a sheep's tail; but he can't do it again. Hallelujah! "for they shall gnaw a file and flee unto the mountains of Hepsidam, whar the lion roareth and the wang doodle mourneth for its first-born."

My brethrening, I am captain of that flatboat you see tied up there, and I've got aboard of her flour, bacon, and oats, and potatoes and apples, and as good Monmouthy whisky as you ever drank; and I'm mighty apt to get a big price for it all. But what, oh, my brethrening, would I care for it all? I hadn't religion! That's nuthin like religion, my brethrening. It's better nor silver and gold jim-cracks, and you can no more get to heaven without it than a jay bird can fly without a tail. Thank the Lord I'm an uneducated man, my brethrening, but I've searched the Scriptures from Dan to Burshebee, and found old Zion right side up, and hard shell religion the best of religions. And it's not like the Methodists what expects to get into heaven by hollerin hellfire; nor like Universalists what gits and goes the trough and the whole hog; nor upon the broad gage and goes the whole hog; nor the United Brethrening what takes each other by the ears of the trousers and tries to lift their selves into heaven, nor the Catholics what buys thru tickets from preests; but it may be likened, my brethrening, unto a man what had to cross a river and when he got that the ferryboat was gone and he just rolled up his breeches and waded over—hallelujah! "for they shall gnaw a file and flee unto the mountains of Hepsidam, whar the lion roareth and the wang doodle mourneth for its first-born."

Pass the hat, brother Flint, and let every hard-shell shell out. Amen.

SMOKING OUT A TENANT.—A corner's jury was summoned on Saturday night by Daniel Pierce, Esq., of Central Falls, to inquire into the causes of the death of Mrs. Bridget McIntyre, who died in that village on Saturday afternoon. It seems that one Thomas Pinkerton, the landlord of the house occupied by Mr. McIntyre, had an opportunity to let it to other parties for an advanced rent, and wished to get him out. So on Monday of last week he commenced some process to smoke them out, which was continued until Saturday afternoon, when Mrs. McIntyre died, as some allege, from suffocation. When the facts became known a large mob collected, and the popular feeling ran so high against Pinkerton that if he had not been arrested and lodged in Pawtucket bridewell he would have experienced some rough treatment.

Dr. King's Dispensary.

DR. A. KING, a practitioner of New York for thirty years, and for the last four in this city, has removed his Dispensary to next door to Walker's Exchange, Third street, Louisville, for the treatment of Private Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Syphilis, and all diseases of the skin and other derangements growing out of neglect or imperfect cure. His long experience and success enable him to act with confidence. All those who may confide their case to him may rest assured of having the disease effectually cured and every vestige of the difficulties perfectly eradicated from their constitutions.

Symptoms of old or recent date effectually cured in a few days by an operation which causes no pain. Where a stricture exists, general debilitation of the whole constitution must ensue, a condition of which will bring on a train of symptoms to be dreaded, and will undermine the constitution and cause premature old age.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.—Particular attention will be given to this disease and all its consequences growing out of it, brought on, in many cases, by the destructive habits of immoderate youth and excessive indulgence of the passions, which undermine the constitution, rendering the subject unfit for either business or society, and causing premature old age.

Persons abroad, by writing and stating their cases, with a fee enclosed (post paid), can have the medicine sent to their address, with necessary directions for using the same.

Office hours at the Dispensary from 9 o'clock in the morning until 9 in the evening. o8 w6wly

"Pantoscopic Glasses," what are they?

"THE most correct glasses ever brought before the public" should be given. There is much in a name. A name may be given to a peculiar form of Spectacles to give them notoriety, but not deservedly to the glasses themselves, unless their quality be superior to others before the public.

If in fitting our customers with Pebbles or Glasses of whatever form or variety it is found that they have not turned out as well as they should, we have no objection to the purchaser than in these Pantoscopic or Solomon notoriety we will refund the price paid and pay the customer for the trouble of false investigation if demanded.
